

the health care reform bill today, the Republican leadership is essentially killing health care reform. What they are doing is making it possible for the wealthy and the healthiest among us to get into these medical savings accounts and take away their contribution from the risk pool, so that what is left is that the average person's premiums are going to go up, because if someone is not wealthy and they are not healthy and they have to stay in the traditional health insurance pool, they are actually going to have to pay more, and the bill is going to be less affordable.

Do not load down this bill. Just listen to this quote from Senator ROBERT BENNETT, a Republican who says, "The Republicans on the House side are going to turn this bill into the vehicle to attach MSA's and other things, and if they do that, it'll die."

That is what the Republican leadership is doing today, killing this bill with all this extraneous material that only helps wealthy people and exposes the rest of the country to higher premiums for their health insurance.

LASALLE LANCERS: 1996 OHIO STATE DIVISION I HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

(Mr. CHABOT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CHABOT. Mr. Speaker, I want to take a moment this morning to pay tribute to the 1996 Ohio State Division I high school basketball champions, the LaSalle Lancers of Cincinnati, OH.

After finishing in last place in their league during the regular season, LaSalle refused to give up. The team confounded the experts by going all the way to Columbus, knocking off powerhouse Toledo St. John's in the State championship game on Saturday night and winning the entire State championship.

I will admit to some personal bias in this instance. LaSalle High School is not only in my congressional district, it is my alma mater. In fact, I got my start in politics at LaSalle running for student council office. I realize some people probably still hold LaSalle responsible for getting my political career off the ground, but that is life.

Coach Fleming and Coach Scott Tillett, about whom a wonderful front page article appeared in the Cincinnati Enquirer yesterday, and all of the fine young men that were on the team at LaSalle, they brought so much glory to our hometown, they certainly are entitled to our tribute.

I want to thank the LaSalle Lancers and congratulate them for winning the State championship this year. Way to go, Lancers.

PRESERVE BIPARTISANSHIP IN SUPPORT FOR HEALTH CARE REFORM

(Mr. WYNN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WYNN. Mr. Speaker, as Members well know, bipartisanship are those rare occasions on which the Democrats and the Republicans agree. We have found some agreement. We agree we need health care reform that provides portability so people can change jobs and keep their health insurance. We agree that we need to prevent people from being barred from insurance because of preexisting conditions. The question becomes, why do we not pass the bill that we both agree on. I will tell Members why: because the Republicans want to ruin this bill, kill this bill with extraneous material to benefit their wealthy friends.

Once again, they ruined bipartisan support by putting on benefits for the wealthy. Just like the tax breaks, here they come again. These medical savings accounts are basically a boondoggle to benefit wealthy, healthy people. They take their money and put it in savings accounts and get a tax advantage. That leaves the rest of us, those who are poor, those who are sick, the regular working guy, to pay higher insurance rates. That is not right.

Every major editorial paper in this country has criticized these medical savings accounts because they only benefit a few wealthy people. We need bipartisanship. We have an opportunity. Please, Republicans, do not ruin it.

VOTE FOR THE REPUBLICAN HEALTH CARE REFORM PLAN

(Mr. KINGSTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, when it comes to this health care debate, we have to ask ourselves: What are the Washington liberal Democrats afraid of? Why are the Democrats so anticonsumer choice? Why are they so against power to the people? Why are they doing everything possible to defeat medical savings accounts, which would allow their own constituents to have more health care choices without the edicts and interference of insurance companies, health care agencies, managed care business types? Why are Democrats afraid of consumer choice?

It is simple. If their constituents find out that they are in a better position to make choices that suit themselves better than what Washington liberals want them to do, then their consumers and constituents are going to figure out, you know, "We do not need all the bureaucracy that the Democrats keep taxing us for. In fact, we do not need these Democrats." They will probably invite them to come home. That, Mr.

Speaker, seems to be why they are so afraid of anything that would give more decision-making power to the American consumers and less to the Washington bureaucracy. Vote for the Republican health care reform plan.

SUPPORT GOOD HEALTH CARE REFORM: SUPPORT THE KENNEDY-KASSEBAUM BILL

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise this morning in the name of bipartisanship and good health reform, but I wonder if many of us know the story of Robin Hood and the seven thieves, because that is just what we have today. The whole issue of health reform has already gotten bipartisan support. The Kennedy-Kassebaum bill simply says we want to give people the ability to have health care if they lose their job. If, tragically, they have a preexisting disease, lung disease, cancer, or heart disease, then we still care about them, and they can have insurance and be able to survive.

But Robin Hood and the seven thieves, the House Republican leadership, wants to say, "We want to give the money to the rich. We want to make sure we have a medical savings plan," which allows people to hoard money away, and those who are working and the working poor and those who are sick will not have the ability to have good health insurance because the medical savings plan is applicable only to the wealthy and the healthy. We will find out that under this Republican medical savings plan, working people will be left out in the cold. They would leave less healthy people to buy ordinary medical insurance at elevated prices because of this proposed medical savings plan. People who in fact lost their jobs would not have insurance.

Let us not kill this bill. Let us support good health reform. Let us pass the Kennedy-Kassebaum bill in a truly bipartisan manner for all Americans to have portability in health insurance coverage and coverage if you have a preexisting condition.

SUPPORT H.R. 3103, THE HEALTH CARE COVERAGE AVAILABILITY AND AFFORDABILITY ACT

(Mr. NORWOOD asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mr. NORWOOD. Mr. Speaker, today we will make a great step forward, in my opinion, in making health care available to all Americans. The Health Care Coverage Availability and Affordability Act will give Americans the two things they need most: increased access to health care and decreased cost. We will give hardworking Americans increased access by addressing the issues of preexisting conditions and portability. We will decrease the cost by
